

Lené Kriel

BSc IT Student

I thrive in fast-paced environments and excel at quickly adapting to new challenges. My commitment to excellence and willingness to invest the necessary hours distinguish me as an exceptional individual. I am driven to consistently push myself to be the best version possible, motivating me to work diligently and go above and beyond expectations.

I am deeply passionate about animals and wildlife. My future aspirations involve seamlessly integrating my profound love and knowledge of animals with my IT skills. I am eager to explore ways to bring together these two aspects of my expertise.
